Fall 2020

Dear Friend of Baldwin,

Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes…
How do you measure, measure a year?

--Jonathan Larson, "Seasons of Love" from the musical Rent

The Baldwin Center is so thankful for our supporters. This year might be measured in struggle or frustration, in tears or exhaustion. But your help allows us to measure 2020 by your generosity. You donated diapers and food and lunch bags and money. You offered words of praise and thanks. You understood the need. Together, we stayed. We served. And we are still here.

As we go forward into next year, the next five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes, we need your help again.

Help us provide hot meals to individuals and families.

Help us provide clothing to those with emergency needs.

Help us provide supplemental food boxes to hungry people.

Thank you for helping us measure 2020 in compassion and service. Take a minute of your year and make this a season of love and help for those in need. Feel free to use the form below, or give online at

Sincerely,
